Volunteer and Support Families In-Need This Holiday Season with the 37th Annual Alumni Holiday Turkey Project

For the past 37 years, the Drexel University community has lent its support to the Annual Alumni Holiday Turkey Project, providing holiday turkeys to families in-need within the University's neighborhood. The need for support continues to grow each year and we ask you to please consider supporting the project. Each donation of $25 will provide 2-3 families with turkey dinners for the holiday season. Drexel alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends can also support the project by volunteering to assist with our turkey distribution on Tuesday, December 21, 2010. More

School Supply Drive

This fall, the Community Alumni Network at Drexel University (CAN DU) will coordinate a revitalization project at an elementary school in the University's West Philadelphia neighborhood. As part of the effort, we are conducting a school supply drive! As you're shopping for school supplies for your family, please consider picking up some supplies for a school in need. Donations can include notebooks, pencils, pens, crayons, rulers, glue, antibacterial lotion, markers, and more! For details on how to donate to the school supply drive, click here.

And, look for more information coming soon on how you and your family can volunteer to participate in our community service project at the school in the fall!

Legacy Families: Join us for Family Weekend 2010!

Family Weekend is a great opportunity for families and Drexel students to spend time together enjoying activities and exploring Drexel's campus. Make sure to stop by the Office of Alumni Relations' table at the Drexel Dragon Fest and Carnival on Saturday, November 6, 2010, for parent giveaways and a free gift for legacy families. For a detailed schedule and more information, click here. Family Weekend is sponsored by the Office of Student Life.

Alumni Honors and Awards 2011 Nominations

Each year the Drexel University Alumni Association recognizes alumni for outstanding achievements in their professions, in the community, and within the University. We encourage all members of the alumni and University community to participate in the awards process by sharing the achievements of fellow alumni, colleagues and friends. We invite you to review the awards criteria and submit nominations for worthy candidates. The nomination deadline is October 29, 2010 for the 2011 Drexel University Alumni Association Awards, and December 30, 2010 for the College of Medicine Alumni Association Awards. For more information and online nomination forms, please click here.

Alumni Spotlight: Dr. Canice Crerand '01, '04

As the saying goes, "A picture is worth a thousand words." But the portraits of eight patients at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) prove that a picture can be worth so much more.

In 2007, Dr. Canice Crerand '01, '04, psychologist in CHOP's Division of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and Assistant Professor of Psychology in the Department of Surgery at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Medicine, was presented with an exciting opportunity. She was approached by two of her colleagues, Drs. Scott Bartlett and David Sarwer, who were moved by an exhibit from the United Kingdom called Saving Faces, a collection of paintings that portrayed patients before, during, and after their facial reconstructive surgeries due to traumatic injuries or cancer. The purpose of Saving Faces was to convey to the public the possibilities of facial reconstructive surgery as well as the strength of the patients. More
